Happy Holidays Wall Hanging

By Fleur Smith

I made this for my Mom for Christmas. She and my oldest son have a really special relationship and I love these photos of the two of them so I decided to make it into a wall hanging she could hang at Christmas. Cover 4x6 chipboard covers with patterned paper. On the top piece add your sentiments and embellishments and on the bottom piece add a photo. Use the Bind-It-All to punch the pieces and thread them together with twine.

It's that time of year when you look at the calendar and say "Wasn't I going to start making Christmas gifts before now?" I know, me too. But I got a little bit going this week when I came across these chipboard albums at the $1 spot at the local craft store. Normally I don't go for the binder ring albums, because I am a Bind-it-All girl, but lately, I've been saying "Why not?"!!! Indeed, why not? Bought some of these, covered the chipboard with paper and punched and bound these puppies along the bottom, for a forward opening sort of a book. Super quick, super cute, super unique. Take a look around at your supplies and see what you can adapt to make a Bind-it-All book!

Must Be Christmas

By Fleur Smith

I made this mini album for my husband's cousins for a small Christmas present. Cover the front of the Cover-All with patterned paper. Add some chipboard decorations and buttons for decoration. For the inside pages cut the paper to 6x6 then add journaling cards on each page for journaling. Add some other embellishments as needed. Bind and slip the completed book into the pocket.
